Villa Venti

Craft wines from the Longiano hills: Sangiovese, native whites and amphora-fermented Centesimino.

Villa Venti was founded in 2002 by Mauro Giardini and Davide Castellucci at Roncofreddo, in the Longiano subzone on the left bank of the Rubicon. Seven hectares of bush-trained vines grow among wheat fields, olive groves and woods, kept healthy by the breezes coming off the Adriatic.

Vineyard work is organic, with nothing but copper and sulphur. Beside Sangiovese, the estate champions native rarities: aromatic whites and Centesimino, fermented and aged in amphora.
