Fattoria Zerbina

A benchmark estate of the Marzeno subzone, organic certified since 2020, from young Sangiovese to legendary Albana passito.

Fattoria Zerbina was assembled by Vincenzo Geminiani between the 1960s and the 1980s on the hills of Marzeno, south of Faenza. His granddaughter Cristina, who trained as an oenologist in Bordeaux, took over in the late 1980s and began the vineyard experiments that made the estate a reference point for all of Romagna.

Her Sangiovese is trained as densely planted bush vines (alberello), an unusual choice that gives small, concentrated bunches. Zerbina is just as famous for Albana: from the dry Bianco di Ceparano to Scaccomatto and AR, botrytised passiti that have collected Gambero Rosso's Tre Bicchieri since 1999.
